are to be solved politically, There is no military solution to be problem. In fact, the Chief of the Army Staff, who has visited the region recently, observed that the problem cannot be solved by deployment of security forces and the problem is to be solved politically. The Government should have effective and meaningful talks with the insurgent groups of the region and come to a political solution of the problem and thereby save the region from going the Kashmir way.

I demand of the Government, through you, Sir, to take immediate steps to stop such atrocities and violation of human rights. I also demand from the Government through you, Sir, to hold an enquiry through a high-powered body, to go into the violation of human rights cases and acts of brutal atrocities and to take action to bring the men responsible for such acts to book, and arrange payment of proper compensation to the people, who have suffered due to such acts. Thank you, Sir.

VALEDICTORY REMARKS

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY): Thank you. Mr. Jibon Roy and some other hon. Members, wanted to seek clarifications on the statement of the Coal Minister which he had laid on the Table of the House. (Interruptions) Kindly bear with me, Mr. Ahluwalia. The hon. Minister will reply to the queries of the hon. Members individually. Therefore, clarifications are not required. (Interruptions)

Now we have come to the happy end of the Session. The Session commenced on Monday, the 31st July, 1995 and we have had sixteen sittings, spread over more than 100 hours. During the Session, thirty-one Reports of various Parliamentary Committee were presented or laid on the Table of the House. Substantial legislative work has been accomplished, including the return of five Government Bills and the passage of eight, We had three matters of Calling Attention, firstly, on the situation arising out of singing of an agreement between Doordarshan and C.N.N, secondly, on the Government's decision to hand over the Bailadilla Mines, being run by the National Mineral Development Corporation, to a Calcutta based private firm, and thirdly, in connection with the total loss of revenue to the Government on account of regularisation of unauthorised occupancy of the Government accommodation. We had four Short Duration Discussions. The first was on the problem of making available adequate potable water in all the villages, basties and habitations in the country. The second was on the nexus between criminals and politicians in the context of the Vohra Committee Report. The third was on the operations being carried on by the LIC throughout the country regarding the lapsing of the LIC policies after payment of first premium in quarterly mode; and the fourth was on the prevailing situation in Jammu and Kashmir.

We had two Half-an-Hour Discussions- one on the trade of Vital human organis and the second on sanction of bridge loans to M/s M.S. Shoes Limited, which the Minister has to reply.

During the Session, a Select Committee on the Trade Marks Bill and another Committee to examine the procurement of railway wagons were constituted. In aggregate, there were ten statements by Ministers, which occasioned a number of clarifications being sought by Members.

There were also as many as 57 Special Mentions on matters of public importance. All of you know pretty well what will happen to the fate of these Special Mentions.

During the Session, 339 Starred Questions and 2620 Unstarred Questions were admitted. The House also passed the Constitution (81st Amendment) Bill, 1995, regarding incorporation of land reforms in the Ninth Schedule to the Constitution.

9.00 P.M.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank the Leader of the House, the Leader of the Opposition and the leaders of various political parties and groups and all the hon. Members for the kind cooperation extended by them in conducting the proceedings of the House without much pandemonium.

I do so also on behalf of the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman, the Vice-Chairman and on my own behalf.

THE LEADERS OF THE HOUSE AND MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S.B. CHAVAN): Mr. Vice-Chairman, I would like to convey my grateful thanks to the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman and the panel of Vice-Chairman, the Secretary-General and members of the staff, the leaders of different political parties. also the members of the Press and all others. In spite of the fact that we enjoyed a number of holidays even during seventeen days of the Session, I must say that we have been able to do a tremendous amount of work. That is because of the cooperation of evrybody concerned. I would like to thank all the hon. Members for their cooperation in getting the Bills passed. Sometimes acrimonious debates had been there, but ultimately good sense prevailed and everybody agreed, and even in respect of the last Bill, which was to be passed, I must specially thank Mr. Mathur for agreeing to withdraw his objection to get the Bill passed. I thank everybody concerned.

श्री जगदीश प्रसाद माथुरः (उत्तर प्रदेश): श्रीमन, हम लोग हर सेशन के बाद अपनी कार्यवाही का एक ब्यौरा अंत में देते हैं। तो प्रसन्नता है कि बहुत छोटे सत्र में भी हमने काफी काम किया है, यद्यपि आपने कहा कि पेंडामोनियम नहीं रहा। बात सच है। काम तो रूका नहीं। लेकिन कभी झड़प हो जाती है। जब तक झड़प न हो तब तक मजा भी नहीं आता है। मगर एक बात मैं अपने सदन के नेता, श्री मतंग सिंह और बहिन मारग्रेट जो नहीं हैं, उनसे निवेदन करूंगा। वरिष्ठ होने के नाते हमारे चव्हाण साहब मुस्कुराहट दिखाकर हमको बार बार निरुत्तर कर देते हैं। ऐसे की मतंग सिंह जी और मारग्रेट जी हम लोगों को अपनी विनम्रता और अपनी मुस्कुराहटों के साथ धोखे में डाल देती हैं कभी कभी। तो कृपया अपनी इन मुस्कुराहटों और विनम्रता का हम पर ज्यादा इस्तेमाल न करें। वरिष्ठ होने के नाते चव्हाण साहब का आदर तो है ही और होना भी चाहिए लेकिन कभी अगर आप गुस्सा हो जाएं तो हमें भी जवाब देने में आसानी आए लेकिन आप मुस्कुरा देते हैं यह हमारी मुश्किल है। लिहाजा मैं जितने भी हमारे अध्यक्ष रहे हैं, सेक्रेटेरियट हैं, मित्र हैं सबका आभारी हूं अपनी तरफ से आभार प्रकट करता हूं और अगला सत्र और अधिक काम का हो और उसमें और महत्वपूर्ण काम कर सकें ऐसी आशा है और लगता तो यही है कि कम से कम लोक सभा के चुनाव के पहले एक सत्र तो हो ही जाएगा।

श्री मतंग सिंहः दो होंगे।

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY): I join the Leader of the House and also Mathurji and other hon. Members to thank the Secretary-General who has been running between the Chairman and the Deputy-Chairman to ascertain whether they have given permission to the Members to raise their issues and has managing the Members whenever they go to the Secretary-General with their problems, and also the members of the staff who have taken much interest and have helped the Members in raising issues in the House, and also the Watch and Ward Staff and the media and the Press who have patience enough to hear the Members, whatever they speak, and report them accordingly.

Before we adjourn the House, hon. Members, I would like to extend to all of you my greetings and good wishes for the forthcoming festivals of Dussehra and Diwali and other auspicious occasions.

SHRI RAMACHANDRAN PILLAI: For Onam also.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY): Yes, I said, for other auspicious occasions.

(The National Song, Vande Mataram, was then played.)

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN: (SHRI NARAYANASAMY): The House is adjourned sine die.

The House then adjourned sine die at six minutes past nine of the clock.

MGIPCBE-CRC-7/RSS/ND/96-24-2-97-400 Copies